§ 725.367 Payment of a claimant's attorney's fee by responsible operator.

(a) If an operator declines to pay any benefits on or before the 30th day after receiving written notice of its liability for a claim on the ground that there is no liability for benefits within the provisions of the Act, and the person seeking benefits shall thereafter have utilized the services of an attorney in the successful prosecution of the claim, there shall be awarded, in addition to the award of benefits, in an order, a reasonable attorney's fee against the operator or carrier in an amount approved by the deputy commissioner, administrative law judge, Board, or court as the case may be, which shall be paid promptly and directly by the operator or carrier to the claimant's attorney in a lump sum after the order becomes final.

(b) Section 205(a) of the Black Lung Benefits Amendments of 1981, Pub. L. 97-119, amended section 422 of the Act and relieved operators and carriers from liability for the payment of benefits on certain claims. Payment of benefits on those claims was made the responsibility of the Trust Fund. The claims subject to this transfer of liability are described in § 725.496 of this part. On claims subject to the transfer of liability described above the Trust Fund will pay all fees and costs which have been or will be awarded to claimant's attorneys which were or would have become the liability of an operator or carrier but for the enactment of the 1981 Amendments and which have not already been paid by such operator or carrier. Section 9501(d)(7) of the In-

§ 725.401 Claims development—general.

After a claim has been received by the deputy commissioner, the deputy commissioner shall take such action as is necessary to develop, process, and make determinations with respect to the claim as provided in this subpart.

§ 725.402 Approved State workers' compensation law.

If a deputy commissioner determines that any claim filed under this part is one subject to adjudication under a workers' compensation law approved under part 722 of this subchapter, he or she shall advise the claimant of this determination and of the Act's requirement that the claim must be filed under the applicable State workers' compensation law. The deputy commissioner shall then prepare a proposed decision and order dismissing the claim for lack of jurisdiction pursuant to § 725.418 and proceed as appropriate.

§ 725.403 Requirement to file under State workers' compensation law—Section 415 claims.

(a) No benefits shall be payable to or on behalf of a claimant who has filed a claim under section 415 of part B of title IV of the Act, for any period of eligibility occurring between July 1, and December 31, 1973, unless the claimant has filed and diligently pursued a claim for benefits under an applicable State workers' compensation law. A State workers' compensation claim need not be filed where filing would be futile. It shall be determined that the filing of a State claim would be futile when:

(1) The period within which the claim may be filed under such law has expired; or

(2) Pneumoconiosis as defined in part 718 of this subchapter is not compensable under such law; or
